

10 Questions to Intentionally Prepare for A New Season:

1. What atmosphere do I want to cultivate in this season?
2. What clothing do I need to plan for, and accommodate spaces for in this season?
3. Where will we spend much of our family time together, and what can I make more accessible for family activities?
4. What out of the house activities do I need to prepare for, and how can I make it easier to leave the house in this season?
5. What spaces have been "on hold" for a season that need to be refreshed?
6. Where will we want to do schoolwork and how can I update organization to streamline lessons and projects?
7. What can I put away from last season that I will not need this next season? What needs to come out of storage?
8. Where will I rest and recharge this season? How can I make that space a place of peace?
9. Are there any big events for which I should be saving?
10. How can I simplify meal times this season? What special circumstances should be considered?
